

FISHERS OF MEN

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR VOCATIONS

ANNOUNCEMENT / HOMILY IDEAS FOR JUNE 6-7

Thank parishioners

Thanks to your support last year, the Special Collection for Vocations raised approximately $350,000 to fund seminarian formation. This is a tremendous help for our diocese, as each seminarian costs approximately $65,000 annually.

Give a Vocations Update

- We have three new seminarians for 2026, which will bring our total to twelve men in priestly formation.
- “Navigation Nights” were held across the diocese for more than 60 young men who want to prayerfully discern their vocations.
- More than 20 men have joined the Sons of St. Joseph, our new fraternal group for boys and young men to grow in virtue as they explore the priesthood.
- More than 20 parishes have Vocation Ambassadors who are priests, permanent deacons, and lay men and women who encourage and promote vocations in their parishes, schools, and families.

Ask parishioners for their support

To support our seminarians—and our efforts to reach young men—the diocese truly needs your financial support. Bishop Peter has asked all Catholics to consider a generous gift. Please use the special envelopes in your pews or give at idahovocations.com/give
